

Condolences – Niko Bessinger

Niko Bessinger, a prominent SWAPO member, and the first Minister of Wildlife, Conservation and Tourism of Namibia died of a heart attack at his home in the early hours of 25 March 2008.

President of the Republic of Namibia, His Excellency Hifikepunye Pohamba described him as a tireless liberation fighter who was very involved in the reconstruction of the country.

The late Bessinger is survived by his father, four sisters, three brothers and five children.

The Ambassador and staff express deep condolences to the family and all the compatriots and friends of Namibia as we mourn the passing of our compatriot.
