

Seamen on vessels

---

Bona fide merchant seamen on vessels which call at Namibian ports do not require visas. They must, however, be in possession of a valid seamen's books or passports. Seamen arriving in Namibia by any means of transport as passengers with the intention of joining their vessels at Namibian ports do not require visas but must be in possession of:

- valid passports or seamen's books, and
- a letter from their vessel's owners or agents confirming that they are joining a vessel and that full responsibility is accepted for their repatriation.